Rear Admiral
Roscoe H. Hillenkoetter, Director Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

I gave your message to in  last week but, unfortunately, my time was so limited I did not have the opportunity to accept his kind invitation to get together.

I expect to return to Germany for a fairly extended time the middle of next month and, if there is anything you would care to discuss with me along the line of our conversation, I shall hold myself available.
I will probably be in Washington a few days each week until I leave.

I have spoken to one or two bright, young college students who were in G-2 during the war. They have good records and are interested in Career Service and I am in hopes that your office will hear from them.

Very truly yours,

/s/
